Present: Commissioner Swope, Commissioner Brummer, Commissioner Pollock, Daleyn Coleman, Amber Smith, Jenn Libby-Jones, Becky Butler, Meja Handlen, Matt Jaeger, Nic Scott, Casey Mauermann, Violet Barboza, Doug Carey

Guest(s): Frank Corbin, unnamed guest

Recorder: Rieva Lester

Public comment: None.

911 sales tax: The commissioners discussed the Combined User Committee's request for the BOCC to forward to the November ballot a 911 sales tax initiative.

Youth Advocacy Center (YAC) contract: Meja Handlen said the county's contract with YAC, which falls under the Community Action Council. Meja noted that the contract, which goes through September, covers wraparound services for abuse victims. Meja said the contract will identify a specific individual filling the YAC position and that the contract will indicate the county must be involved in filling the vacancy should the individual leave.

Security video policy: Commissioner Pollock discussed recent requests for security footage from the courthouse. Amber Smith further discussed the requests, as well as public records requests for video footage. Amber noted that the county's system purges aging video to make room for new video. Amber discussed the state archive requirements for video footage. She noted there would be costs associated with getting into compliance with the state requirements. Commissioner Pollock noted she requested video footage the Monday after a weekend incident occurred and did not receive it.

County Manager selection process: Daleyn Coleman presented options for the county manager contract. The commissioners directed staff to continue negotiation efforts.

Meeting adjourned at 11:29 a.m.
