Jenn Libby-Jones discussed proposed changes for a six-month extension to the 911 interlocal agreement with the Combined User Committee (CUC), which represents area fire, police and EMS departments. She noted that the original agreement expires at the end of the year.

The commissioners directed staff to provide the CUC and its members copies of the proposed six- or 12-month extension and then present the proposal during the CUC meeting planned for Dec. 21.

David Bailey said there should be no issues should the extension get delayed until mid-January.

Meeting adjourned at 11:14 a.m.
