Mountain View Cemetery: Becky Butler reviewed potential contingencies for the upcoming tax title sale of Mountain View Cemetery. Becky said a press release and fact sheets about the sale would be released likely later in the day.

At 9:06 a.m., Commissioner Pollock recessed the meeting until 9:30 a.m.

The meeting resumed at 9:30 a.m.

Legislative update:

Troy Nichols provided the following updates:

- North Lewis County Interchange work appears to be going well.
- Senior services efforts appear unsuccessful.
- Capital Budget requests have been submitted, including requests for an equestrian facility at the fairgrounds and repairs of the museum roof.
- Request for Assessor / Treasurer tax software has been submitted.
- Requests regarding the regional fair have been a bit of a struggle.

Commissioner Pollock requested an update on Ceres Hill Road funding. Josh, Troy and Eric said they were unaware it had been added to the county's Legislative Agenda.

Josh discussed a proposed bill regarding Energy Facility Site Evaluation Council (EFSEC). The commissioners said they would sign in support of the bill.

Meeting ended at 9:55 a.m.
